

I am writing to both praise the Indiana Attorney General's calling privacy policy in Indiana and requesting that the FCC do nothing to change the current regulations. It has been absolutely wonderful since the Indiana legislation took effect, to not be constantly bothered by telemarketers. Our attorney general new what was best for Indiana, and I ask that you would let his judgment and legislation stand untouched by federal intrusion. Thank you for your consideration.

Shaun Raad